The Personal Data We Process and What We Do with It

We keep several categories of personal data about you in order to provide you with our services. We store this data in a cloud-based client management system and may also keep hard copies of registration forms and medical records.

Specifically, we may hold the following types of data:

- a) personal details such as name, address, phone numbers
- b) your gender
- c) marital status
- d) details of next of kin / family members
- e) medical history and health data
- f) credit card details (in encrypted format)

We will communicate with you by email and / or text message in relation to the services we provide to you, this may include information such as bookings confirmations and reminders, purchase receipts and forgotten login details.

Lawful Basis for Processing

The law on data protection allows us to process your data for certain reasons only. We process your data in order to perform the contract we have with you to provide you with our services.

Special Categories of Data

Health data is a special category of data. We may need to process your health data in order to fulfil our obligations in the performance of the contract.

Failure to Provide Data

Your failure to provide us with data may mean that we are unable to fulfil our requirements for entering into a contract with you or performing the contract that we have entered into.

Sharing Your Personal Data

We only share your personal data with third parties in order to perform the contract we have with you to provide you with our services.

Third parties with whom we share your data may include:

- Our practitioners and therapists who may be self-employed or limited companies in their own right;
- Your medical insurance company;
- Our client management system provider, MINDBODY;
- Our online bank, Optimal.

Where third parties are used by us to process your personal data, we ensure they are compliant with data protection law.

We share your data with a body outside of the European Economic Area, located in the USA and the reason for sharing with this country is Performance of the Contract. We have put measures in place to ensure that your data is transferred securely. MINDBODY have Privacy Shield certification which complies with GDPR regulations relating to transferring data outside of the EU and are committed to processing data in a way required by EU and UK data protection laws.

Retaining Your Personal Data

Whilst you are client or patient of reCentre Health Limited we will continue to store and use your personal data.

We will retain your personal data for the following periods:

- Adults and children – for a period of no more than 25 years from the date of your last visit

Limited information may be retained within our accounts systems indefinitely to maintain the integrity of the data.

Automated Decision Making and Profiling

We do not use any system which uses automated decision making or profiling in respect of your personal data.

Your Rights

As we process your personal data, you have certain rights. These are a right of access, a right of rectification, a right of erasure and a right to restrict processing.

- You may request a copy of your data at any time. Please make such a request in writing or by email to us, at the address shown above. Please provide the following information: your name, address, telephone number, email address and details of the information you require.
- If you believe any of the personal data we hold on you is inaccurate or incomplete, please contact us directly and any necessary corrections to your data will be made without undue delay.
- If you believe we should erase your data, please contact us, at the address shown above.
- If you wish us to stop storing or using your data, please contact us, at the address shown above.
- Where you have provided explicit consent for us to use your data you have a right to withdraw this consent at any time.

Data Breaches

Should your personal data that we control be lost, stolen or otherwise breached, where this constitutes a high risk to your rights and freedoms, we will contact you without delay. We will give you the contact details of the person who is dealing with the breach, explain to you the nature of the breach and the steps we are taking to deal with it.

Should You Wish to Complain

If you think your data rights have been breached, you are able to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner (ICO). You can contact the ICO at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF or by telephone on 0303 123 1113 (local rate) or 01625 545 745.
